- ensuring that this website achieves [Level A/AA] conformance to the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) [2.0/2.1]
- Complying with the [State/Federal/Local/Ethical] Guidelines and Information Provided by Government Bodies
- Ensuring that all new information on the website will achieve Level [A/AA] conformance to the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) [2.0/2.1]
- Including accessibility when we procure 3rd-party systems or upgrades to existing systems, when possible.

This website's conformance with official accessibility guidelines

The website currently passes an audit to the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) [2.0/2.1] Level [A/AA]. Our most recent web accessibility audit for this website was on [date of the last web accessibility audit].

We have also developed all content to conform with CVAA Guidelines. We have not had a quantifiable audit performed on these measures, but we have [examined ourselves/consulted with professional/consulted with person with disability] to ensure all relevant content accessible.

Areas for improvement and time-lines

We are aware of some areas on the website where we could improve accessibility. We are currently working to achieve this. We hope that this website will achieve [Level A/AA] conformance to the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) [2.0/2.1] by [deadline for conformance].

Please see the next section for a table that documents our current areas for improvement, along with. Description of the features we have added to remediate these problems.

Website Section	Improvement Needed	Timeline for improvement	Completion Date & Notes	Alternative Access
[What area is not in compliance]	[What is needed to fix or remediate]	[When do you plan to have this done?]	[If completed, document date and any notes]	[Who to contact or complain to if the user has this issue]
